St. Charles Coon Office.

JOSEPH RAFEL, is now prepared at his office in St. Charles street, third door from the corner of Gravier street, (under the St. Charles Hotel,) to LOAN MONEY on Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry and other portable and valuable articles.
Persons wishing to transact business, establish himself as a dealer in Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry and Silver Ware, and a large variety of other articles, in selling under full guarantee, at about one half the usual rates asked by other dealers. An interest in the business and profits is invited, when he feels confident they will both prove satisfactory.

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD—Ran off from the plantation of the undersigned, in Point Lafourche, the slaves BENRY LEONARD and LEON DESIRESON. The former, a mulatto, is bearded, has a round, full face, open countenance, and is about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, and about 22 years of age. He is 1 or 2 years younger than Leon, who is of the dark color, about the same size and weight as Henry; is quick spoken, and speaks English well. They recently bought from Maryland and are perfect strangers in this country. They run off together, and formerly belonged to a tailor, trying to make their way up. They were dressed in old fashioned coats and pants, and have with them a fiddle, which will be given for any information leading to their arrest. Leon has a small scar on the left side of his face, and several other fine scars and deformities. Henry has a scar on the left side
