Personal Mention.

Mr. and Mrs. Scudday Frost, from Lockport, spent last Sunday in Thibodaux.

Prof. J. E. Gurrdia, Supt. of schools, of St. John parish, was in Thibodaux last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. John B. Taylor and two of her children, Mabel and Nolan, were in New Orleans on Mardi Gras day.

Mr. T. R. Simmons, who had been in Terrebonne for quite a while, returned to Thibodaux last week.

Mr. Arthur Lusignan, who was visiting relatives and friends in Thibodaux, returned last Saturday to his home at Welsh, La.

Mrs. C. P. Shaver and her sister, Mrs. A. J. Maloney, of Denver, Colo., went to New Orleans last Sunday to take in the carnival.

Mr. A. J. Long, the local agent for the Standard Oil Co., was among those who went to New Orleans to admire Rex and his retinue.

Mrs. S. Boone Smith, who was a guest at the home of her brother, Mr. John Schrodt, Jr, left last Monday for New Orleans, to take in the carnival, prior to returning to her home at Clarksville, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lobdell are entertaining Mrs. Lobdell's sister, Mrs. H. C. Bradford, and her little son, from Cleburne, Texas.

Mr. L. C. Waterbury is confined to his home with a severe attack of rheumatism. We hope that he will soon get rid of his pains and be able to circulate as of old.

Miss Alice Auslet, the Canal street milliner, returned last week from St. Louis, where she gone on a business trip. Miss Auslet, who has prospered considerably, finds it more advantageous to go to market and make her purchases than order by mail or depend upon the traveling salesman.

Mrs. Philip Use and Mrs. John Pitre, of Lafourche Crossing, were in Thibodaux last Thursday and while in town called at the COMET office. Mrs. Use, who came to settle for the COMET, stated that her husband had arranged to move back to Thibodaux and they would be here this week. We welcome them back.

Mrs. A. Bourn, who resides in New Orleans, preferred to spend Mardi Gras in Thibodaux rather than in the domain of Rex, so she came to Thibodaux last Sunday and until yesterday was a guest at the home of Hon. J. L. Aucoin. She says that her family are well and doing well, but her brother Henry is not in good health.

Mr. U. L. Boudreaux, who owns a store near Lafourche Crossing, was an agreable caller at this office last Thursday. Mr. Boudreaux says that he has never seen the roads of this parish in a worse condition that they have been during the past season. This is certainly not saying much for our public thoroughfare, which are needed so badly in maintaining traffic.

The funeral of Mrs. (Judge) C. A. Engerran, which took place last Thursday evening, attracted a tremendous gathering of mourners and friends. When the head of the cortege reached St. Joseph's Church the end was still at the Convent. The body was borne to the last resting place by the deceased lady's six sons—Messrs Charles, Louis, Albert, Oliver, Edward and Claude Engerran—and the sympathy and sorrow exhibited by the large gathering showed in an unmistakable manner the high esteem entertained for Mrs. Engerran and her family.

The Misses Badeaux—Misses Gertrude and Florence—opened up their store this week. They are located on Thibodaux street, which seems to be destined to be the coming business thoroughfare of Thibodaux. We have not seen the class of goods that the you ladies carry, but we suggest tha you give them a call, with a little of your coin, and you can find out just what they have got.

Mrs. Henry Folse, of St. James, who spent several days in Thibodaux, left yesterday for her home. She was accompanied back by her mother, Mrs. Arthur Blanchard, who will be away for ten days.

Mrs. Martin Schwartz, of New Orleans, came to Thibodaux last week to attend the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Leandre Boudreaux.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stockton, New Orleans, and Mr. Henry Boudreaux, of Algiers, were in Thibodaux last week, having come to the funeral of Mrs. Leandre Boudreaux.

Mrs. Felix Caillouet, nee Marie Lasseigne, whom we reported as being critically ill, died last Sunday, aged 49 years 6 months and 12 days. Her remains were interred last Monday in St. Joseph's Catholic cemetery. The deceased lady was the mother of a number of children, who with their father, are left to lament the loss of one who cannot be replaced.

GROWING CHILDREN.

Advice to Mothers of Thibodaux.

Perhaps the most important principle involved in the care of a child is proper nourishment.

How many delicate children do we meet on our streets with colorless cheeks and thin little legs and arms. It is very plain to be seen that rapid growth takes all their strength and little bodies are not receiving sufficient nourishment to make them strong and robust.

We may say to the parents of all such children in Thibodaux that our delicious cod liver and iron preparation, Vinol, will build up delicate children, fill out hollow cheeks and make them strong, robust and rosy. Vinol makes new vitality, sound flesh and muscle tissue and pure, rich red blood, and children love it. This is because Vinol is a delicious tasting cod liver preparation without oil, made by a scientific, extractive and concentrating process from fresh cods' livers, thus combining with peptonate of iron all the medical, healing, body-building elements of cod liver oil, but no oil.

As a body builder and strength creator for old people, delicate children, weak, run-down persons, after sickness, and for chronic coughs, colds, bronchitis, and all throat and lung troubles, Vinol is unexcelled. Try Vinol on our offer to return money if it fails to give satisfaction. Both Drug Store, Thibodaux, La.

Mr E. C. Hoop- and Miss Rose Mailbrough were married last Monday in New Orleans. Both of the contracting parties are well and favorably known in this town. Until a few months ago the groom conducted the Thibodaux Bicycle Agency, where his ability in other lines brought in contact with many of our people who learned to esteem him, not only for his social characteristics, but also for varied mechanical knowledge. He is a young man of excellent habits. His bride is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Malbrough, of Thibodaux. She is a pretty and popular young lady, and will doubtless make an ideal wife.

Card of Thanks.

The undersigned desires to express his profound thanks to the voters of the third ward of the parish of Lafourche for having chosen him as their police juror. In return, he will endeavor to represent your interests in a faithful and satisfactory manner. He remains,

Truly,
LEONARD FALGOUT.

How many of our Thibodaux friends have or have had tenants like this one:

MY TENANT.

It was a humble parasite,
Far smaller than a flea,
Who came upon a winter's night
And rented rooms in me.
I knew not where he went to dine
Nor how he spent the day,
But soon within the frame of mine
The devil was to pay.

Along my Ego's thoroughfare
A whirlwind second to pass;
A sense of terror raised my hair,
My soul grew sick, alas!
I shivered with unholy pain,
I burned with inward fire,
And not a doctor could explain
The while their bills ran higher.

They murmured Latin names galore
Then guessed again in Greek,
And wrote prescriptions by the score
Of words they could not speak.
And finally 'twas put to rout—
My tenant had to skip—
And then it was that I found out
The beast was called La Grippe.

Dr. H. Sanche & Co.,
Dear Sirs:—I have both the No. 1 and No. 2 Oxydonors, and have been using the former for the past fifteen years. I can truthfully say it does all you claim for it and I would not give my instrument for my factor I know.
Oxydonor was used with success for Chills and Fever after Medical failed to cure. Have also used it with perfect success in the treatment of Carbuncles, Erysipelas, and other diseases. It never fails.
I recommend it to others who I think needs it, and I never intend to be without one myself.
Yours very truly,
J. R. LAYNE.
