ADDRESS OF THE FIRST WARD DEMOCRATIC COLORED CLUB.

Some Facts for the Consideration of Colored Men.

A Sound Clear View of the Situation.

The following address, issued by the First Ward Democratic Colored Club, will be read by every one with interest. If all the colored men in the State would look at the situation in the same light as the members of the club, there would soon be an end to carpet-bag and scalawag rule in this State.

To the Colored Men of New Orleans:

Fellow-citizens and men: formerly slaves, Through God's providence we are free. Not only are we free, but we have been invested with all the rights and privileges of citizens. We can vote, act as jurors, hold offices and testify in courts.

Our condition is unlike that of any other race. We were all Republicans, but we are getting poor and poorer, while the Republicans are growing rich, every one or see than wading head. All the time the Republican party has been in power, our people have been defrauded. Warmoth, Dibble, Wickliffe, Kellogg, Packard and many others, we have seen them come to State very poor and now are very rich; all know they did not make their money by honest labor. They never did a day of honest labor in their lives. Yet they are rich, and we and the white people of the State of Louisiana are getting poorer all the time.

Why is this? It is because we are taxed and robbed to support and enrich the carpet-baggers.

Before the election you seem very dear to them. They want your votes, they want your money. They care not for your votes. Can they get you and works? No. Can they support you? No. Who gives you work and pays wages? The white planters and merchants and business men of the South. If they are taxed, and the business fails and they are made poor, you cannot expect to get work and wages.

But the carpet-bagger says the white of the South will make us slaves again. They cannot. They do not wish us. God made us free, and God will protect our liberties if we show that we are worthy of our liberty.

All the mighty power of the United States stands to guard our liberties, and they cannot be taken from us.

But even granting that we were freed by the United States, and that we have all the rights and the right to fight and send men to and our white fellow-citizens? No.

But we are told that the white people kill and murder our race because we are colored. It is false. We are not killed because we are colored, or because, or conflicts of race except when abolition lies come round, then the carpet-bagger, for his own base purposes, excites you to deeds that are wrong, and then comes circle. In years when there are no elections, all is peaceful and quiet.

But we call your attention to the fact that some of you of the colored race have persecuted we, have beaten us and threatened our lives because we wanted to be Democrats, and to vote with our white friends.

We ask you, remember, then we have the right to think as we please. The white have gallantly secured us, have protected us. But we are growing stronger now. We have two clubs. We will have others soon. How long has it been since white men have been killed? Since the metropolitan police who were acting for Kellogg in the primary elections? Have you not seen your active champion, Mr. Pinchback, turned away from the Senate? If Kellogg is successful, there will be more of this. Look at Kellogg side and Pinchback is turned away.

Colored men, friends, awake from your mental slavery! Leave the carpet-bagger come with us. Our Club is now ninety strong. The second Ward is over forty men. Let us help the true Democrats to defeat the Radicals. There are other clubs. We are organized for self-defense, for ourselves. Then there will be peace, trade, work and wages for all.

WILLIAM ALEXANDER,
President First Ward Democratic Colored Club.
WILLIS DOUGLAS,
Vice President.
THOMAS WILLIAMS, Secretary.

Number 9 Camp street is the local place by for To buy your tobacco or a good cigar.

WONDERFUL.—Mechanical genius never reaches its acme until the inventions of the justly celebrated Crack's Brilliant Cooking Stove, which possesses all modern improvements, including the oven stoves, bodies appliances not yet known to the stove world, such as chilled iron fire plates, consumers in baking or roasting, and many other neat but well adapted contrivances, which place the Brilliant Brilliant upon the top of the stove world. Call at Camp street, and be convinced of the truth of the above. Also, the economical all-purpose Range to apply at Hafer's at cure for a Brick's Brilliant.

If you want a cigar built fragrant and free
Go to Tiemann's, on Camp street; the number is 9

J. TURCOTTE.—The cool airs of October bring on warning of the approach of chill winter. Housekeepers should take time by the forelock, and, with an eye to economy, at once visit the spacious store of J. Turcotte, 158 Canal street, and replenish their empty pantries with a full supply of provisions, fuel and groceries. Remember J. Turcotte, 158 Canal, corner of Baronne street.

OILS, BARREIS, WHISKIES, BEER, ETC.—If a visit to the store of Mr. Jos. Schmidt, 40 Poydras, the equal of a mammoth establishment filled to replenish with the products of every clime, let him pay a visit to Messrs. Smith & McKenna, 40, 42 and 44 Poydras street. There he will find the finest and most complete stock of goods, and tribute to his gustatory delights. At this time we will not particularize their stock, but will call attention to their superior brandies, celebrated ale, sweet oil, homelike sardines, choice and red beans, and various brands of whiskies.

Cigars of every grade, shape and brand, at low rates, at the Crescent City Cigar Store, 9 Camp street.

STOP AND LOOK.—As you pass down Carondelet street, just stop one moment gentlemen, and look in at the windows of 110 Canal street. Messrs. H. B. Stevens & Co., have lately opened out a new stock of goods, and we believe that there is not in the whole city to be found a more complete and var d line of gentlemen's clothing and furnishing goods. With a new stock and new stock, Messrs. Stevens & Co. are enabled to furnish the million with any quality or styles of clothing. Call and see them, at No. 110 Canal street, Tourne building.

We urge our friends connected with all branches of cotton business to carefully peruse the advertisement of Mr. James G. Clark, agent for Jones' Patent Cotton Gin, which is one of the important items in the success of the planters and presses, and any opposition to the introduction of this gin will be met with fear and largely patronized. Mr. Clark undersells the other dealers, and makes special inducements where large quantities are needed.

Smokers, are you ready? Here charge the cigar store, No. 9 Camp street, and puff genuine Havanas to your heart's content.

SWEETS READY.—There are many gentlemen in New Orleans who enjoy a good fragrant Havana cigar, but are addicted able to find one at a suitable price, and this being one of the principal features of enjoying luxuries, it would be well for all who desire to procure the finest Havana cigars to visit the Crescent City Cigar Store, No. 9 Camp street, where they will find a fine stock, our pleasant young friend Albert behind the counter, who will lay special attention to all smokers who call. If you enjoy by Tiemann's cigars once you will never smoke any others.

The choicest selection of Havana cigars at Tiemann's, 9 Camp street.

NEW AND FRESH.—The residents of the Fourth Ward and the surrounding vicinity will be pleased at Mr. James Cochran, who has opened a first-class family grocery store at No. 647 Magazine street, opposite the Upper City Hotel, where can constantly be found a fresh and full line of choice and staple groceries, as well as a full line of beverages and liquors, for family use. Mr. Cochran has bought his goods for spot cash on the back, and, therefore, is enabled to sell to buyers at rates greatly below the general retail dealers. Don't pass the place, but stop at the new store, 647 Magazine street. Bear it in mind, opposite the Upper City Hotel.

You can't find a bad cigar at No. 9 Camp street. If you don't believe it go and try.

The Rives Ticket.

The following changes have been made in the Rive ticket. The gentlemen named below have been placed in nomination for the Legislature: For the Fourth District, Carl Fisher, instead of J. Fredricks; for the Third Representative District (Third Ward), E. Wood Perry and A. Dimmers; Tenth District, Charles Heath, instead of Joggers.

The above corrections should have been made on inside page, but sure to be here to save it time.

MR. C. T. HOWARD, OF NEW ORLEANS.—It is with great pleasure that we announce the above name in connection with the Legislature of the South. Mr. Howard is a gentleman of ability, and, if elected, will be found a true and staunch friend to the South, with a view of organizing a home stable at New Orleans, in order to encourage racing at that point. Not that he cares, but we think such country, needs just such men as Mr. Howard added to the list of current gentlemen. We hope his name may often show in the front. —New York Spirit of Times.

Try Shepard's patent church clock.

If you want a good cigar go to the Crescent City Cigar Store, No. 9 Camp street.

The fee to a member of Congress, or any other officer who may be influence decisions, or under the pretense of acting as counsel, is really a bribe. No sophistry can change the character of the transaction. The abuse is constantly growing, and, until laws are made prohibiting members of Congress, of Legislatures, and municipalities, from acting as counsel in any matter which is probable to come before them, or which the public interests which they are chosen to guard will be affected, the abuse and bribery will increase.—Philadelphia Inquirer Digest.

Rich, fragrant and delicious—the cigars of Tiemann's, 9 Camp street.

Shepard's patent search clock wonderfully improves the quality of search. For sale by Henry W. Brown, 108 Camp street.

WESTERN PRODUCE.—The attention of the trade is called to the card of Messrs. Fitz Brooks and Moses, Robinson and Rose, 56 Tchoupitoulas street, who have for sale a large stock of dry salted shoulders, clear sided sides, breakfast bacon, choice extra flour, candles, starch, meal (corn meal) grits, fancy pearl meal, etc.

COAL.—The approach of cold weather admonishes us to lay in our supply of the popular fuel whereby to keep the family comfortable. And where shall we go? Why, to Mr. Coyle's Depot, No. 116 Gravier street, who has a large and fine stock of Pittsburg, Virginia, cannel and anthracite coals, which they are offering for sale at the lowest market prices. Their depots are located at the corner of Race and Levee streets and at the corner of Julia and Water streets.

Direct importation of fresh Havana cigars at the Crescent City Cigar Store, at the lowest market rates.

J. LEVOIS & JAMISON.—The name of this popular dry goods firm is well known in this community as one that has ever catered to the taste of the fair sex, and, from the fact that the most of their goods have been selected from first hands, and by the most experienced dry goods men in the country. The firm stock is now to be seen at 136 Canal street, and there is no more varied nor a better stock in the Southern country.

Of the numerous splendid coffee-houses in this city, there is not one of which the proprietors are in lagoon can find better wines, brandies and wines than at Arcadia's Coffee House, 121 Gravier street. His lunches are really superb. Give him a call.

The Crescent City cigar store is the only place in the city where a good cigar, meerschaum, or whiskey, or ale, can be found.

There is considerable excitement over the proposed fast race to come off to-day on Grande Lecteau Camp and St. Charles streets. The contestants are J. E. Wild and J. A. Hinkley, well known as wonderful pedestrians, and the race is for one hundred yards. It comes off at 2½ P.M.

Attention is called the advertisement of the bailie process and man in another column.

ASSESSMENT NOS. 171 and 175.—See special notice, under death of Mrs. Natalie Forstall on C.S. Sussmile—payable at the office of the Mutual Aid and Benevolent Life Insurance Association of Louisiana, No. 19 Camp street.

Cigars are very cheap at the Crescent City Store, No. 9 Camp street.

By reference to our advertising columns the card of Mr. R. D. Marlin, real estate agent, 28 Carondelet street, will be seen, in which he offers for sale a large number of valuable lots in the Jackson family. Those who are interested in the Jackson family, the depot and branch office is at the land of Second street, Fourth District. Fuel is in need of coal for the coming season would do well to call on Mr. Marlin.

Use Shepard's patent search clock.

"Stand not on the order of your going, but go at once," is the Crescent City Cigar Store, No. 9 Camp street.

Malaga grapes are very cheap at 60 cents a pound, but J. M. Smith sells them at that price, corner of Camp and Canal streets.

On Thursday, October 15th, a great sale of crockery ware and house furnishing goods will take place at 85 Canal street, at the store of P. Matscher. Persons in the habit of making purchasing goods in the above line, can call to-day and examine the goods, and be ready for the sale which will take place. No fine selection of goods can be found in the Crescent City.

Tuesday packet for Grand Ecore and Mexandria—The Fine, Capt. John C. Mitchell.

Never stop walking until you find the Crescent City Cigar Store, No. 9 Camp street.

Do you indulge in Malaga grapes? If you do, go to Smith's, corner of Canal and Camp—60 cents per pound.

The Stevenson.—Every Confederate soldier should be interested in the Stevenson Orphan Asylum Hotel. It was the home for poor soldiers, and those who could not pay their board found a sweet, pleasant home, under the management. This gentleman has now taken the last-mentioned occupied by Andy Dale, who is prepared to furnish the best liquors and a good lunch. Give Capt. Corbett's call.

Thousands of our citizens will regret to hear of the death of Mr. Newton Richards, a public-spirited, enterprising citizen, and a warm-hearted, genial, charitable gentleman.

By reference to our auction column, it will be seen that Mr. T. P. Hubbard, auctioneer, at No. 19 St. Charles street, will offer a fine lot of book and stationery, as well as the new and popular literature, and all books that are useful and instructive to mankind.

THE JEWEL.—The Jewel has been polished and is now refulgent with all the brilliancy that it possesses when first it was ushered into public view. Again, the decorators that ornament the interior of this popular saloon, on Gravier street, Georgie Hanson, the proprietor, is happy and satisfied with the consciousness of having the finest and most attractive saloon in the city. The fine in the city. The Jewel is the place to go from the best people encourage him to think what he believes, that the Federal Use Scale will rule the day.

BANANAS.—The fair sex are always zealous to send each other in the style and fabric of their attire. Those who wish to adorn their graceful forms in the most exquisite shades of silks, and at the most reasonable rates, should call at the new and popular establishment, Perlman Bros., at 122 Carondelet street. Perlman Bros. are the well as anyone from many or other houses. Messrs. Perlman Bros. have been known for many years in this community, and should receive a liberal patronage which their hard work deserves.

Malaga grapes in profusion at the Hard Fruit Store, corner of Canal and Camp streets, opposite per pound.

First Ward Central Democratic Club.

At a large and regular meeting of the First Ward Central Democratic Club, the following resolutions were offered and unanimously adopted:

HALL FIRST WARD CENTRAL DEMOCRATIC CLUB, 1
Resolved, That we cordially indorse and ratify the nomination made by the Parish Convention, and pledge our earnest and united efforts to secure the success of the Democratic party in the State, and the success of the Democratic party in this parish and parishes of the State, and the success of the Democratic party in the United States, in the interests of harmony.

R. TESSIER, Jr.,
PETER COLLIN,
J. TIMONY.

The New Lessons Emerald starts at 6 o'clock.

Go to the Hire Fruit Store and lay out 60 cents for Malaga grapes.

Read the card from Mr. Tom Sullivan, the Tip at agency, 62 Magazine street.

No one knows a good cigar until he has tried some of Tiemann's from No. 9 Camp street.

Everybody has tried the cigars at the Crescent City Cigar Store, and pronounce them far superior.

Come one! come all! and get a pound of Malaga grapes at 60 cents, from Smith, corner of Camp and Canal streets.

Shippers should bear in mind that the Tchefuncte has been thoroughly repaired and is ready for business for Grand Ecore and all way landings on Red River.

Thanks.

MRS. E. H. Shropshire desires to return thanks to the following named gentlemen for courtesies, trous made, and services rendered, on the occasion of the concert and festival at Exposition Hall, on the 29th and 30th ult., for the benefit of the families of our fallen defenders:

Crescent City Relief Association.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 10, 1874.

THE CRESCENT CITY RELIEF ASSOCIATION has been organized by the Ladies of New Orleans for the purpose of providing a fund from which aid may be rendered to the families of those who fell in defense of our rights on the memorable Fourteenth of September, 1874, and assistance given to the wounded, some of whom are permanently disabled, and others made helpless for months to come.

At the last meeting it was decided to address a circular to the ladies throughout the State, soliciting the co-operation in increasing the amount of this fund.

The Association suggests the formation of Branch Associations in every parish in the State with officers chosen by the ladies composing them, for the purpose of collecting subscriptions and donations, either in money, clothing, food, or such articles of production as may be made available in furthering the objects of the Association. We continue to suggest that in addition to personal efforts, this cause may be, through public entertainment and concerts before the people, that thus a general interest may be awakened and our cause firmly attached to all to aid in this noble work.

In making this appeal, we feel confident of the hearty co-operation of the daughters of Louisiana, who have never failed to give their willing response to the call of patriotism and benevolence.
