

Dr. J. K. Thovner was in Welsh Monday, filling his appointment as advertised in last week's Journal.

Oyster shells are what the laying hens need—we have them. More Hardware Co.

Dr. L. G. Lewis went to Elton in his touring car Monday. He has been placing several Ford cars in the Elton neighborhood recently and expects to make other sales there in the near future.

FOR SALE—Four Thompson Sub Machine Guns, in fine condition. For serious inquiries at the Journal office.

Richard Garfield, who is associated with his father in the mercantile business in Elton, was in Welsh the first of the week endeavoring to make arrangements for establishing their picture here in the near future.

FOR SALE—Household Stoves, and lead-free iron cast. For inspection, see advertisement in this issue.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Vittoria, of the oil field, went to Jennings Monday morning, for a short visit with friends.

B. P. Taber of Rice, was transacting business in Welsh Monday.

Rice Bran, Polish, Corn Chops, Oats, Acme Chops, Stafloffe and Cotton Seed Meal. At the Welsh Warehouse & Supply Co.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Robinson, of the oil field, were in Welsh Monday morning.

FOR SALE—Atlas Engine, 40 horsepower, and 40 horse power boiler. Inquire of Mrs. H. Spurgeon, one and one-half miles southeast of Welsh.

Mrs. Lawrence of Bowles, G. A. member by the people of Welsh, as Miss Orthello Colby, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Anthony Herbert, from Sunday until Wednesday, of this week.

The management of the Auditorium states that the comedy play "The Bachelor," is the only play that is booked for the remainder of the season. So come out and witness the best attraction they have booked; a play that is guaranteed to please the "root critics."

Miss Helia Laikoi went to Lafayette Thursday morning to attend the funeral of her little niece, the ten months old daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alec Lawson.

A. G. Davis, formerly of Welsh, but for some time past, located at Elton, arrived in Welsh Monday morning and will spend a few days here. Mr. Davis has been connected with the Layton & Bowler company for several years, but is now engaged in introducing an electro-thermo iron at his own residence.

Our Spring Garden Seeds have come out and witness the best attraction they have booked; a play that is guaranteed to please the "root critics."

Miss Helia Laikoi went to Lafayette Thursday morning to attend the funeral of her little niece, the ten months old daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alec Lawson.

A. G. Davis, formerly of Welsh, but for some time past, located at Elton, arrived in Welsh Monday morning and will spend a few days here. Mr. Davis has been connected with the Layton & Bowler company for several years, but is now engaged in introducing an electro-thermo iron at his own residence.

Our Spring Garden Seeds have come out and witness the best attraction they have booked; a play that is guaranteed to please the "root critics."

Dr. J. K. Thovner was in Welsh Monday, filling his appointment as advertised in last week's Journal.

Oyster shells are what the laying hens need—we have them. More Hardware Co.

Dr. L. G. Lewis went to Elton in his touring car Monday. He has been placing several Ford cars in the Elton neighborhood recently and expects to make other sales there in the near future.

FOR SALE—Four Thompson Sub Machine Guns, in fine condition. For serious inquiries at the Journal office.

Richard Garfield, who is associated with his father in the mercantile business in Elton, was in Welsh the first of the week endeavoring to make arrangements for establishing their picture here in the near future.

FOR SALE—Household Stoves, and lead-free iron cast. For inspection, see advertisement in this issue.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Vittoria, of the oil field, went to Jennings Monday morning, for a short visit with friends.

B. P. Taber of Rice, was transacting business in Welsh Monday.

Rice Bran, Polish, Corn Chops, Oats, Acme Chops, Stafloffe and Cotton Seed Meal. At the Welsh Warehouse & Supply Co.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Robinson, of the oil field, were in Welsh Monday morning.

FOR SALE—Atlas Engine, 40 horsepower, and 40 horse power boiler. Inquire of Mrs. H. Spurgeon, one and one-half miles southeast of Welsh.

Mrs. Lawrence of Bowles, G. A. member by the people of Welsh, as Miss Orthello Colby, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Anthony Herbert, from Sunday until Wednesday, of this week.

The management of the Auditorium states that the comedy play "The Bachelor," is the only play that is booked for the remainder of the season. So come out and witness the best attraction they have booked; a play that is guaranteed to please the "root critics."

Miss Helia Laikoi went to Lafayette Thursday morning to attend the funeral of her little niece, the ten months old daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alec Lawson.

A. G. Davis, formerly of Welsh, but for some time past, located at Elton, arrived in Welsh Monday morning and will spend a few days here. Mr. Davis has been connected with the Layton & Bowler company for several years, but is now engaged in introducing an electro-thermo iron at his own residence.

Our Spring Garden Seeds have come out and witness the best attraction they have booked; a play that is guaranteed to please the "root critics."

Dr. J. K. Thovner was in Welsh Monday, filling his appointment as advertised in last week's Journal.

Oyster shells are what the laying hens need—we have them. More Hardware Co.

Dr. L. G. Lewis went to Elton in his touring car Monday. He has been placing several Ford cars in the Elton neighborhood recently and expects to make other sales there in the near future.

FOR SALE—Four Thompson Sub Machine Guns, in fine condition. For serious inquiries at the Journal office.

Richard Garfield, who is associated with his father in the mercantile business in Elton, was in Welsh the first of the week endeavoring to make arrangements for establishing their picture here in the near future.

FOR SALE—Household Stoves, and lead-free iron cast. For inspection, see advertisement in this issue.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Vittoria, of the oil field, went to Jennings Monday morning, for a short visit with friends.

B. P. Taber of Rice, was transacting business in Welsh Monday.

Rice Bran, Polish, Corn Chops, Oats, Acme Chops, Stafloffe and Cotton Seed Meal. At the Welsh Warehouse & Supply Co.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Robinson, of the oil field, were in Welsh Monday morning.

FOR SALE—Atlas Engine, 40 horsepower, and 40 horse power boiler. Inquire of Mrs. H. Spurgeon, one and one-half miles southeast of Welsh.

Mrs. Lawrence of Bowles, G. A. member by the people of Welsh, as Miss Orthello Colby, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Anthony Herbert, from Sunday until Wednesday, of this week.

The management of the Auditorium states that the comedy play "The Bachelor," is the only play that is booked for the remainder of the season. So come out and witness the best attraction they have booked; a play that is guaranteed to please the "root critics."

Miss Helia Laikoi went to Lafayette Thursday morning to attend the funeral of her little niece, the ten months old daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alec Lawson.

A. G. Davis, formerly of Welsh, but for some time past, located at Elton, arrived in Welsh Monday morning and will spend a few days here. Mr. Davis has been connected with the Layton & Bowler company for several years, but is now engaged in introducing an electro-thermo iron at his own residence.

Our Spring Garden Seeds have come out and witness the best attraction they have booked; a play that is guaranteed to please the "root critics."

Dr. J. K. Thovner was in Welsh Monday, filling his appointment as advertised in last week's Journal.

Oyster shells are what the laying hens need—we have them. More Hardware Co.

Dr. L. G. Lewis went to Elton in his touring car Monday. He has been placing several Ford cars in the Elton neighborhood recently and expects to make other sales there in the near future.

FOR SALE—Four Thompson Sub Machine Guns, in fine condition. For serious inquiries at the Journal office.

Richard Garfield, who is associated with his father in the mercantile business in Elton, was in Welsh the first of the week endeavoring to make arrangements for establishing their picture here in the near future.

FOR SALE—Household Stoves, and lead-free iron cast. For inspection, see advertisement in this issue.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Vittoria, of the oil field, went to Jennings Monday morning, for a short visit with friends.

B. P. Taber of Rice, was transacting business in Welsh Monday.

Rice Bran, Polish, Corn Chops, Oats, Acme Chops, Stafloffe and Cotton Seed Meal. At the Welsh Warehouse & Supply Co.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Robinson, of the oil field, were in Welsh Monday morning.

FOR SALE—Atlas Engine, 40 horsepower, and 40 horse power boiler. Inquire of Mrs. H. Spurgeon, one and one-half miles southeast of Welsh.

Mrs. Lawrence of Bowles, G. A. member by the people of Welsh, as Miss Orthello Colby, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Anthony Herbert, from Sunday until Wednesday, of this week.

The management of the Auditorium states that the comedy play "The Bachelor," is the only play that is booked for the remainder of the season. So come out and witness the best attraction they have booked; a play that is guaranteed to please the "root critics."

Miss Helia Laikoi went to Lafayette Thursday morning to attend the funeral of her little niece, the ten months old daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alec Lawson.

A. G. Davis, formerly of Welsh, but for some time past, located at Elton, arrived in Welsh Monday morning and will spend a few days here. Mr. Davis has been connected with the Layton & Bowler company for several years, but is now engaged in introducing an electro-thermo iron at his own residence.

Our Spring Garden Seeds have come out and witness the best attraction they have booked; a play that is guaranteed to please the "root critics."

Calcasieu Trust & Savings Bank
Welsh, Louisiana.

Capital and Surplus $250,000.00.

We promise you Careful, Accurate Banking Service, whether your account is large or small.

We pay 4 per cent. on savings deposits and compound the interest semi-annually.

SWIFT'S PREMIUM BACON
300 POUND
BEST EATING POTATOES $1.20 BU.
AT BARBER'S

THE PLANTERS'
Are Never Without Good Food Stuff.

The Best Goods are purchased from the most reliable manufacturers, and are sold to our customers in the same condition as when received.

Our All Gold Flour
is one of the leaders in our stock of HIGH CLASS GROCERIES
It makes better bread and goods faster than any other kind.

Planters' Grocery Co.

HALL & SHIPLEY,
PAINTERS AND PAPER HANGERS

All work guaranteed. We charge NO Commission on paper where we do the Work. Be Strictly First Class. Let us sell you your Wall Paper, Coal Oil and Gasoline.

THE SAFEST AND QUICKEST WAY
TRANSFER MONEY IS BY LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE
FOR OTHERS REFER TO LOCAL MANAGER
CUMBERLAND TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY.

Barred Plymouth Rocks.
EGGS FOR SALE—$1.00 Per Setting of Five.
STOCKS FOR SALE.
W. M. TERRY.

Copyright © 2020 Newspapers.com. All Rights Reserved.

POWERED BY Newspapers.com

"A. Lusignan" The Rice Belt Journal, Welsh, Louisiana, 17 Feb 1911, page 5, column 3. Newspapers.com by Ancestry, https://www.newspapers.com/image/194813955. Downloaded 9 Feb 2020.