

LOCAL NEWS CONTINUED.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tanner returned Monday evening from Alexandria, where they had been spending several weeks visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. S. W. Day.

Rice Bran and Polish at Jones Bros.

Another pair of twins made their arrival in this locality Wednesday morning, coming to grace the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ludious Derouen, living in the Jack Benoit neighborhood.

Scotch Collie Pups for sale. Two fine ones. Call on or address Henry Welsh, Welsh, La.

Mrs. P. W. Kiplinger and little son, Lester, who have been spending several months visiting friends and relatives in Ohio, arrived in Welsh Sunday evening. Mr. Kiplinger having met them in New Orleans.

Come and see our line of Buggies, Surries, Harness and Saddlery before you buy.

Southern Mercantile Co

Rev. Louis May of Crowley, enjoyed a couple of days hunting with Rev. J. A. Carruth of this city, the first of the week.

The ladies of the Catholic church will serve a Thanksgiving supper at the Catholic Hall on Nov. 24. All are cordially invited to attend.

A. M. Liscomb and daughter, Miss Sarah, were Lake Charles visitors Tuesday.

See the Newest Things in our dry goods department.

Southern Mercantile Co.

Leon Pitre was in Lake Charles this week, serving on the grand jury.

Rust Proof Seed Oats at Jones Bros.

November 1st being All Saints Day, was appropriately observed by the Catholic people of this locality.

FOR SALE:—A Mathusset Piano, good as new, at a bargain. Apply at this office.

Jules Darby and wife, two of the highly respected colored people of Welsh, spent several days at Port Arthur this week, being called there by the serious illness of their son, Rodger.

A FRESH MILCH Cow for sale, inquire at the Journal office.

P. W. Kiplinger and L. G. Lewis went to New Orleans Thursday night of last week, the former going there to meet his wife and son, who had been spending several months in the north, and the latter to meet his son, Erwin, who came down from Baton Rouge as one of the rooters for the L. S. U. football team.

See the Newest Things in our dry goods department.

Southern Mercantile Co.

Messrs. J. D. Kimball and sons, Willie and Willard, and J. J. Kimball, were in Lake Charles the first of the week, going there in the interest of Oscar Kimball, who appeared before the grand jury on the charge of killing Ward Liscomb several weeks ago.

Big Barbecue

---

Election Day!

---

The Anti-Division Club of Welsh, La., Will give a Big Barbecue at Welsh, La, on Election Day.

This election, we consider, is of vital importance to each taxpayer of Calcasieu Parish.

Come out and eat of the good things prepared, and vote upon the question of DIVISION.

---

ANTI-DIVISION CLUB

WELSH, LOUISIANA.

A FRESH MILCH Cow for sale, inquire at the Journal office.

A. Lusignan, our well known baker went to Port Arthur, Monday for a few days visit with his cousin, Philip Lusignan, formerly of Welsh, but now located in Port Arthur.

I am agent for the Model Steam Laundry of Crowley. Bring me your work. All work guaranteed satisfactory. Elmer Goodreau, At Model Grocery store. 4H

FOR RENT:—A two story house one block north of depot; can give possession Sept. 1. Address, A. E. Bourgeois, Welsh, La. 12H

Messrs. L. E. Robinson, John Armstrong, D. C. Bortoff, Dr. Stewart and Judge Russell were in Lake Charles the first of the week, having been called to appear before the grand jury as witnesses on the Liscomb murder case.

B. P. Tabor of rice, was a business visitor in Welsh Monday.

Anyone wanting anything in the line of Japanese Drawn Work or Embroidery, either for Christmas or wedding presents, can secure the same by calling on Mrs. H. E. Heald

Rice Bran and Polish at Jones Bros.

P. H. Goodreau and son, Elmer, were transacting business in Lake Charles Monday morning.

R. E. Meus went to Lake Charles Monday to serve as a member of the grand jury.