

Personal Mention.

Mrs. E. F. Ritters spent last Sunday visiting friends in Franklin.

Miss Louise Richman, the Market street artist, returned last Monday from a visit to friends in Poydras.

We had a pleasant call last Friday from Mr. S. Robinson and Mr. W. L. Legrand, both of Raceland.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Schneider returned last Friday from a stay of several days in New Orleans.

Mrs. Thos. Niquin of Algiers, is a guest at the home of Mr. Paul Niquin, in Thibodaux.

Mr. Omeu Boudreau, of Thibodaux, left yesterday to spend sometime in Jeanerette.

Be in style. Buy the June McCall Magazine at the Ladies Furnishing Parlor, 8c. per copy. Patterns in stock.

Miss Emma Boudreau and Miss Ida McKiver, of Thibodaux, are spending sometime in New Orleans.

Mr. J. Taylor Lejeune, who was recently an attorney on the Weber plantation, is now employed on the St. John plantation, St. Martin, La.

Mrs. Clay Niquin and her popular son, Phil, were in New Orleans this week to attend the commencement exercises of the New Orleans College of Pharmacy.

Mrs. Kibler Guillot and children returned Monday from a visit to Morgan City. They were accompanied by Miss Nan Higgins, who returned yesterday to Morgan City.

Mr. and Mrs. Emilie Oswald, accompanied by their son Benedict and Master Norman Legendre, went to Donaldsonville last Sunday to witness the Firemen's parade in that town.

Mr. Sidney Lusignan, a young man of this town, left last week for Texarkana, Texas, to enter the Morse School of Telegraphy. We hope that he will be very successful in his studies.

Miss Elvira McIndoe returned this week from a stay of several days in New Orleans, where she was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Fernand Bayou. On her return she stopped at Chas. Bayou to visit her brother, Mr. Victor Boudreau.

We had an agreeable call last Tuesday from Mr. A. H. Folse and Mr. Chas. Folse, both of Raceland. Mr. A. H. is the teacher of the Breux school, while Mr. Chas. is part owner of the Raceland Club Saloon.

The Chief of the Thibodaux Fire Department, Mr. Chas. Riviere, and his two assistants, Mr. Eugene Knobloch and Mr. Jackson Bernard, participated in the Firemen's parade in Donaldsonville last Sunday.

Mrs. R. Coffinet, accompanied by her son, Mr. Rudolph Coffinet, her daughter, Miss Ophelia, and her grand-daughter, little Jeanne Marie Danerac, spent last Sunday in Donaldsonville, having gone there to see the Firemen's parade.

Mr. Wallace Trouclair is preparing to build an addition to the house that he recently bought from Mrs. J. G. Oswald, the house immediately in the rear of what was formerly the Most property, on President street. Mr. Trouclair has sold his St. Charles street property to a colored man by the name of Gen. Lewis.

Miss Nina Guillard had quite a thrilling experience last Saturday evening. It seems that she had gone for a short ride on a horse belonging to Mr. T. Torres. On returning the horse became unmanageable to the young lady and as a result she was thrown to the ground so forcibly as to be rendered unconscious. She received assistance and with the prompt restoration she was soon over the serious mishap.

Mr. Rudolph Spillman has resigned as manager of the Lafourche Drug Store. Mr. Spillman, we understand, contemplated moving to Illinois or some other western place for the betterment of his wife's health. While regretting that the gentleman and his family have decided to leave here, we trust that wherever they may locate health and happiness will be theirs.

If you intend to spend your summer away from home consult your agent of the Southern Pacific Shortest Route for particulars. Very few round trip rates on Saturdays, June 1st to September 15, 1906, to points North, East, South, West, Panama, Colon, New Orleans, or S. G. Reed, Inc. Pass Agent, Lake Charles.

We extend congratulations to Mr. Edward Niquin, who returned last Tuesday from New Orleans with his diploma as a pharmacist. He was a student at the New Orleans College of Pharmacy, which held its commencement exercises last Monday.

The young man has always been noted for great bearing and his obliging manner and hence it is fair to assume that he is a qualified doctor. He will hold his friends that he is an aid around him more.

Mr. C. Salomon and family, of New Orleans, are guests at the home of Mr. J. Friedman, in Thibodaux.

Mrs. J. J. Boudreau and her son, Chas. and Miss Angèle Boudreau, the latter being from Jeanerette, are staying guests at the home of Mr. James Boudreau, in Thibodaux, left last week for Reserve, La.

The house of Mr. A. E. Dolson on Canal street, caught fire last week for the fourth time in the past twelve months. The blaze was quickly extinguished.
